

The bottom line is value.

Our estimate is that the totality of Tapestry, including the curriculum, all supplementary products, and books for all four years purchased at full price, comes to approximately $11,000. Allow us to put that in context for you.

Saxon Math	12 years	one subject	some students	teacher and student materials: $1,975
Private School*	12 years	all subjects	one student	average tuition (plus books): $93,000
Tapestry	12 years	six subjects	all students	teacher and student materials: $11,000

*Taken from 2013-2014 tuition of an average private school - not counting rising tuition costs. Please note that, given the complexity and flexibility of curricula, all of these numbers are estimated.

How do you measure value? Compare Tapestry in the chart above with one popular math program, or with an average private school's tuition. To the right, think about value that comes from reusing Tapestry materials with multiple children. Imagine paying only $1,833 per child for the K-12 humanities studies of 6 children—and the joy of being there for every single “Oh!” moment.

number of children
1	2	3	4	5	6
$11,000	$5,500	$3,666	$2,750	$2,200	$1,833

Here's one way to look at it: You'd pay (at retail prices) these amounts per child for their entire K-12 education in 6 subjects.

It only gets cheaper from here.

What's the Bottom Line?

When considering Tapestry of Grace, many families ask the question, “What's this going to cost us?” This is a difficult question to answer, partly because Tapestry is so easily customized, and partly because its recommended books are so easily located in libraries or at discount prices. Yet, to enable our customers to make the best possible decision for their family, we have compiled this price list for Tapestry of Grace Year 1 DE.

Curriculum Components

Below, we divide our program and its supplements into two categories: Primary and Secondary. The Primary section lists major components. The necessary core of this program is the Tapestry of Grace year-plan. These are the base prices.
