

LITERATURE SUPPLEMENT: A CHRISTMAS CAROL

Cut out the game board and the cards on the following pages. You will need to tape the game board on this and the next page together.

	ENJOY THE SPIRIT OF GIVING! CHOOSE ONE PLAYER TO MOVE AHEAD TWO SPACES AND YOU MOVE AHEAD ONE SPACE.

DESCRIBE ONE OF YOUR FAVORITE CHRISTMAS CELEBRATIONS. GO FORWARD THREE SPACES.
				BAH HUMBUG! GO BACK THREE SPACES.
			ROAST CHESTNUTS ON AN OPEN FIRE. SKIP ONE TURN.

Setting Card			CHARACTER CARD
Setting Card	DEFINITION CARD		CHARACTER CARD
			CHARACTER CARD
			DEFINITION CARD
		RING THE BELL! SUMMON ONE PLAYER TO JOIN YOU ON THIS SPACE.	BAH HUMBUG! GO BACK TWO SPACES.		CHARACTER CARD
ALMS FOR THE POOR! SWITCH PLACES WITH ONE PLAYER BEHIND YOU.	IT'S CHRISTMAS! TAKE OFF A DAY AND LOSE A TURN.	Setting Card
BAH HUMBUG! GO BACK TWO SPACES.
CHARACTER CARD		Setting Card
	CHARACTER CARD		START HERE

CHARACTER
CARDS

I am the character who has been dead for seven years, but I was Scrooge's sole friend.	I am the character who frequently says, "Bah! Humbug!"	I am Scrooge's clerk who asks for a day off on Christmas.
Scrooge sees my face in the knocker on the door of his home.	I appear to Scrooge with a chain wrapped around my middle, complete with cashboxes, keys, padlocks, ledgers, and heavy purses.	I have white hair (but no wrinkles!) when I visit Scrooge.
I am Scrooge's sister and am considered a "delicate creature."	I am Scrooge's master when he is an apprentice.	I tell Scrooge that a golden idol of "gain" has displaced me.
I am considered a jolly giant, and I ask Scrooge to get to know me better.	I acknowledge that I have learned a lesson and desire to keep learning so that I will profit by it.	I am the young boy who uses a crutch and am supported by an iron frame.

Setting
Cards

On which day of the year does the story begin?	Where are Scrooge and Bob Cratchit as the story opens?	After leaving the warehouse at the opening of the story, where does Scrooge eat?
At what time of day does Scrooge see an unearthly visitor who is like a child, and yet like an old man?	A solitary child sits in this place, reading near a meager fire.	The time of the day in which the dances with the Fezziwig family cease
This room has undergone a transformation which includes leaves of holly, mistletoe, and ivy.	Where do Scrooge and the Ghost of Christmas Present stand on Christmas morning?	As Scrooge and the Ghost of Christmas Present watch, where do the steeples call people?
Scrooge and the second spirit stop at this home and bless it.	Where in the family home do the Cratchit's bless and toast each other?	Games such as blindman's buff, "How, When, and Where," and "Yes and No" are played here.

DEFINITION
CARDS

Allow students to use a dictionary to look up any words.

executor

provision

phenomenon

phantom

apparition

benevolence

specter jovial aspiration avarice

stave

extravagant